

HISTORY CURRICULUM PATHWAYS

ONE-TERM ELECTIVES

May include courses such as:

- | | |
|---|--|
| American Government: From Politics to Policy | History and Politics of Sport |
| American Legal System | Modern Middle East |
| The American West: Tradition and Transformation | Modern Russia |
| Contemporary East Asia | Parties, Politics and Elections |
| Covert Operations and Espionage: The CIA in Latin America | Slave Trade and the Atlantic World |
| | South Africa's Search for Truth and Reconciliation |

NOTES

- New 10th graders who have already taken Modern Global History are enrolled in the Race, Ethnicity and Migration class, a skills-based course designed to integrate new students into the history classroom.
- 11th graders enrolled in U.S. History choose a 20th century thematic focus for the spring term.
- Students who qualify may take AP U.S. History as juniors and other AP courses as seniors.
- One-term electives and spring term concentrations vary annually.
- The Department offers a Signature Program in Asian Studies.